

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20505

Mr. James Hyde
Office of Legislative Reference
Office of Management and Budget
Washington, D. C. 20503

Dear Mr. Hyde:

This is in response to your request that we reconsider our report on H. R. 6364 and H. R. 4294, in light of the Defense Department's report on H. R. 6364.

We do not believe there is any inconsistency between the two reports. Our report does not take a position on the policy implication of the legislation but rather properly, we believe, defers to the views of the Civil Service Commission. Our report did support H. R. 4294 over H. R. 6364 but simply on the basis that if there were to be a change in concept concerning creditable service for retirement it should apply to all Federal staff retirement systems.

In view of the above, your advice is requested on our report as submitted.

Sincerely,

STATINTL

Acting Legislative Counsel
